

International Humanitarian Law Dialogs 2015

August 31st– September 1st at Chautauqua Institution, Chautauqua NY

“The Wrongs We Seek...”

In Commemoration of the Srebrenica Massacre (1995)
& the Opening of the International Military Tribunal at Nuremberg (1945)

Sunday August 30th– Arrival

2:00 p.m. Movie Screening at Chautauqua Cinema

Seeking the Truth in the Balkans, Erin Lovall and June Vutrano

Panel: Dean Michael Scharf and Professor Jennifer Trahan

Monday August 31st- DAY ONE OF THE DIALOGS

7:30 a.m. Breakfast with the Prosecutors at the Athenaeum Hotel

9:00 Welcome

President of Robert H. Jackson Center, James C. Johnson

President of Chautauqua Institution, Thomas Becker

9:15 Katherine B. Fite Lecture

Sponsored by the IntLawGrrls

Delivered by Patricia Sellers

Introduced by Professor Beth Van Schaack

9:50 The Impunity Watch Essay Contest Award Ceremony

Presented by Andrew Beiter and Kyle Herda

10:00 Break

10:30 Reflections by the Current Prosecutors

Moderated by Dean Michael Scharf

12:15p.m. Lunch at the Athenaeum Hotel

1:00 The Clara Barton Lecture

Sponsored by the American Red Cross

Delivered by Claudia Paz y Paz

Introduced by Federico Barillas Schwank

2:30 Round Table Discussion: Srebrenica Massacre at Fletcher Hall

Prof. William Schabas, Hon. Pat Wald, Hon. Mark Harmon

Moderated by Professor Leila Sadat

4:15 Student “Porch Session” at Fletcher Hall

Sponsored by the International Bar Association

A conversation with the Prosecutors and students

Moderated by Andrew Beiter and Kate Elci

6:00 Reception on the Porches at the Athenaeum Hotel

Sponsored by the American Bar Association

6:30 Dinner at the Athenaeum Hotel

7:30 Keynote Address

Delivered by Henrike Claussen

Introduced by Prof. Dr. Douglas Neckers

Transportation will be available between the Athenaeum Hotel and Fletcher Hall (Monday)
Meal Tickets must be purchased to attend lectures at the hotel, 2 hours prior to being scheduled, at the front desk.

International Humanitarian Law Dialogs 2015

“The Wrongs We Seek...”

In Commemoration of the Srebrenica Massacre (1995)
& the Opening of the International Military Tribunal at Nuremberg (1945)

Tuesday September 1st- DAY TWO OF THE DIALOGS

7:45 a.m. Breakfast with the Prosecutors at the Athenaeum Hotel

8:15 Reflections

Delivered by Professor David Crane

9:00 Year in Review at the Presbyterian Chapel

Presented by Professor Mark Drumbl

11:00 Porch Sessions at the Athenaeum Hotel

The Legacy of International Military Tribunal at Nuremberg

Professor William Schabas, Mark Agrast

The Legacy of the ITCY

Prosecutor Brenda Hollis, Professor Valerie Oosterveld,

The Role of the ICC in the Middle East

Professor Jennifer Trahan, Professor Michael Newton

UNSC Impasse to Justice?

Dean Michael Scharf, Professor Paul Williams

12:30 p.m. Lunch at the Athenaeum Hotel

1:00 Luncheon Keynote

Delivered by Hon. Pat Wald

Introduced by Professor Diane Amann

2:30 The Issuance of the 9th Chautauqua Declaration

Moderated by Elizabeth Andersen

*Meal Tickets must be purchased to attend lectures at the hotel, 2 hours prior to being scheduled, at the front desk.

The Robert H. Jackson Center contacts:

If you have any questions please contact:

Liz Jones, Operations Manager: ejones@roberthjackson.org

Robert H. Jackson Center #716-483-6646

Athenaeum Hotel at Chautauqua Institution #716-357-4444

www.roberthjackson.org

Thank you to our sponsors:

The American Bar Association; The American Red Cross; American Society of International Law; Case Western Reserve University School of Law; The Chautauqua Institution; Impunity Watch; International Peace and Security Institute; International Bar Association; intlawgrlls; NYU Center for Global Affairs; The Planethood Foundation; Public International Law and Policy Group ;The Robert H. Jackson Center; Syracuse University College of Law; United States Holocaust Memorial Museum; University of Buffalo Law School; Whitney R. Harris World Law Institute at Washington University School of Law