The theme of the Tenth IHL Dialogs was “A Lasting Legacy for the Future.” It was held in Nuremberg, Germany, in commemoration of the seventieth anniversary of the closing of the International Military Tribunal. Highlights from the Proceedings of the Tenth IHL Dialogs include:

- Keynote Address by Joseph F. Kamara
- “Commemoration of the Seventieth Anniversary of the Nuremberg Trials” by Loretta Lynch
- “The Future of International Criminal Law Looking Back” by Hans Corell
- “Legacies of Nuremberg” by John Q. Barrett
- Updates from current and former chief prosecutors of the ECCC, ICC, ICTR, ICTY, and SCSL

The American Society of International Law has published a written record of the Dialogs every year since they began in 2007. In addition to this year’s Proceedings, all back issues are available for purchase online, including a five volume boxed set (2007–2011). The Proceedings collect years of insights into the international criminal justice system and are invaluable resources for researchers, educators, and advocates alike.

To purchase volumes online (ASIL members, $25; non-members, $35) and have it shipped to you, visit asil.org/IHLProceedings. The box set is available for the low price of $75 to ASIL members and $100 to non-members. You can order the collection online at www.asil.org/books.
