ANASTASIA

My parents are both still living in Belarus, but I moved to the United States for work three years ago. I might be 34 years-old but I still miss my parents a lot. It would be easier to visit them if I had my United States Passport. I want to apply for citizenship.

TYLER

I was born while my mom was stationed in Germany. I spent the first 10 years of my childhood there, but then we came back to the United States and I finished high school and started college in my parents' hometown of Chicago.

5

YOLANDA

I fled from my home in the middle of the night and was granted refugee status. The United States took me in 8 years ago and I have worked hard to learn English and adjust to living in a new country.
