

Arab Spring

The Arab Spring is one of the major geopolitical events of the 21st Century. Not since the fall of the Berlin Wall and the demise of the Soviet Union has there been such a sea of change in world power. With these seminal events come strife, conflict, and tensions that challenge the rule of law and international peace and security.

The Seventh Annual International Humanitarian Law Dialogs will consider, discuss, and reflect on the Arab Spring and the concerns related to accountability and the rule of law stemming from the conflicts that have caused thousands of deaths and millions to be displaced. Join the chief prosecutors of the world's international courts and tribunals, along with senior diplomats, and distinguished academics as they convene once again at the world famous Chautauqua Institution in Upstate New York.

THE LONG HOT SUMMER AFTER THE ARAB SPRING: ACCOUNTABILITY AND THE RULE OF LAW

The 7th annual International Humanitarian Law Dialogs, co-sponsored by the Robert H. Jackson Center at the Chautauqua Institution, is an historic gathering of renowned international prosecutors and leading professionals in the field of international criminal law. This unique three-day event, held August 25-27, will allow participants and the public to engage in meaningful dialogue concerning past and contemporary crimes against humanity, and the role of modern international criminal law.
